REMEMBERANCES

When Ulrich Kuhni was the janitor of the old church (which he was for 20 years), his first wage was $2.00 a month. It was increased to $12.00 a month by the time he retired. His duties included lighting 12 oil lamps and caring for 3 stoves when the church was in use.

The first meeting house in Midway, dedicated in 1895. It was built of native rock and measured 30 by 60 feet.

